

Macerata University
Department of Education and Training Sciences in collaboration with Centro di ricerca in Psicologia dello sviluppo e dell'educazione and “Children in Europe” Edizioni Junior - Bergamo

International Meeting

Multiple Intelligence Theory:
Experiences and theoretical reflections

Macerata (Italy) 15th April 2009

Aula Magna dell'Università

Piaggia dell'Università

The University of Macerata, Department of Education and Training Sciences, is hosting a meeting to discuss research and practice that draws on the Theory of Multiple Intelligences (“MI”). The meeting will provide a venue to exchange ideas about MI-related work being carried out in different countries. The meeting will be held at the University of Macerata (Marche, Italy) on April 15th, from 9:00 until 18:00, and will be streamed live to remote sites.

Program

Official languages Italian and English

9.00-9.30	Introduction to the meeting (Prof.ssa Paola Nicolini- Macerata University)
9.30-10.30	Introduction to the theme. MI: outcomes and issues (Prof.ssa Mindy Kornhaber – Pennsylvania State University) Discussion
Coffee break
11.00-12.00	The American Experience (Prof.ssa Mindy Kornhaber – Pennsylvania State University_US)
12.00-12.15	Discussion
12.15-13.15	The Romanian Experience (Prof.ssa Mariana Norel – University of Brasov-Transylvania)
13.15-13.30	Discussion
Lunch
14.30-15.30	An Experience in U.K. (Prof. Mike Fleetham – Educational Consultant and Trainer - Winchester) by video conference
15.30-15.45	Discussion
15.45-16.45	The Italian Experience (Prof.ssa Giuseppina Gentili – Gruppi IMAS)
16.45-17.00	Discussion
17.00-17.30	Further reflection, discussion and feedback
17.30-18.00	Conclusions (Prof.ssa Paola Nicolini)

Info: nicolini@unimc.it – fax +397332585927