Title: Family business and work-family balance: comparing Italy and Spain

Offer description:
Family business is an important legal, economic and social phenomenon, mainly investigated in Europe and North America, and rich in elements unexplored by research, such as organisational structure, social aspect, generational issue, family-work reconciliation, transmission of social capital, and gender issue. The research aims to explore the topic of family business from an economic and sociological perspective with a particular focus on the issue of family-work reconciliation. The research activity, to be carried out in Italy and Spain, includes a careful analysis of the literature on the topic, the analysis of case studies in the two countries and a comparison between the different systems. In particular, the research aims at highlighting the limits and possibilities of family business models in companies also in relation to the reconciliation of family and work with a focus on gender differences.
